Consensus for action

Prague is and will remain antifascist! And not just on November 13, when we'll gather together in Prague to show that the fascist movement has no place in the Czech Republic!

To ensure our success together, we want to adhere to the following agreements:

1. We will not use violence. We will try not to escalate the situation unnecessarily. We will not destroy anything. We will not lay a hand on anyone at the conference or on the police, nor will we attack them.
2. We will avoid verbal violence (even on banners!). We will not incite anyone to violence!
3. In the event of a physical confrontation, we will not retaliate; and in case of danger, we will call the police.
4. We will film dangerous situations and the people involved.
5. We respect our own limits and those of others; everyone is comfortable with a different level of involvement.
6. We interact with the police as little as possible, communicating briefly and to the point. We resist police interventions against us only passively.
7. We strive to work together to ensure the well-being of everyone involved. Anyone who wants or needs to may leave at any time. It's more important that we're all safe.
8. We are not under the influence of intoxicating substances, nor do we carry them onto the streets. We do not carry any weapons or anything that could be considered a weapon.

If you do not abide by this agreement, we will not be able to provide you with legal support afterward.

